Beyond Religion Ethics For A

A possible religious foundation for ethics is important to explore, as it is not obvious that secular naturalism can provide a fully satisfactory foundation for ethics. The study of religious ethics is also recommended given the great importance of interfaithdialogue, which pervades our political system, not to mention everyday human interaction.

Ethics & Religion | A Guide to Ethics

In my religion, Judaism, a revealed religion, ethics or morality is the attempt to arrive at a view of the nature of human values, of how we ought to live and of what constitutes right conduct. In order to arrive at a view, it sets goals and assesses actions by the extent to which they further these goals, e.g. if happiness is
