This is the house that Jack Built. This is the 6,000 square feet of games and toys and affection that Jack Clark made for his four kids, not at all like the house he grew up in, not at all like the silent one his own father made. In this house in Danville, Calif., he is so much more like his mother, soft and flowing like whipped cream.

Think of yourself as the carpenter. Think about your house. Each day you hammer a nail, place a board, or erect a wall. Build wisely. It is the only life you will ever build. Even if you live it for only one day more, that day deserves to be lived graciously and with dignity. The plaque on the wall says, "Life is a do-it-yourself project."

Jesus Christ often illustrated His teachings with parables. Some of them seem easy to grasp, but others hide a deeper meaning. The parable of two builders (Matthew 7:24-27 and Luke 6:47-49) is an easy-to-understand story that summarizes some of the lessons Jesus gave in the Sermon on the Mount. Drawing on His experience in carpentry and His knowledge of sound construction, Jesus demonstrated ...
